

2025-2026 Supervisor of the Year Award - Application Deadline: March 31, 2026

The Supervisor of the Year Award is designed to acknowledge the hard work, dedication, and innovative approaches of SWCD supervisors in Indiana. It's our way of saying, "We see you, and we appreciate you." This award recognizes those who lead by example - supporting conservation efforts, engaging with their district and the community.

This award is designed to recognize outstanding and exemplary Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisor achievements and leadership in the protection and enhancement of Indiana's soil and water resources. It is sponsored by Indiana Prairie Farmer.

Any current District supervisor serving on a local Indiana Soil and Water Conservation District Board is eligible to be nominated, with the exception of current IASWCD officers and region directors.

Nominations may be made by any individual, organization, agency or conservation partner. The application deadline is March 31, 2026.

Supporting Materials: Materials such as articles, photos, etc. that support the supervisor's achievements and leadership should be sent as a supplement to this application. They may be emailed to amy-work@iaswcd.org. All supporting material must be received by March 31, 2026.

One state winner will be recognized at the IASWCD Statewide Conference in January 2027.

Note: This award is kept confidential from the award recipient until it is officially announced at the conference. The "nominator" will be contacted by IASWCD after selection and will ask for support in coordinating the Supervisor's presence at the award ceremony.
